

Plan Your Next Event at the

Stefanie H. Weill Center for the Performing Arts

Add a touch of distinction to your corporate annual meeting, client reception, business dinner, or performance by choosing the Stefanie H. Weill Center for the Performing Arts for your next event. The Weill Center offers that “something extra” not found in a typical conference center, meeting room or recital hall; exposure to a historic, beautifully restored theater. From the glamorous red-carpeted and gilded balcony area spacious enough for a 50-person reception, to the “star-lit” ceiling over the 1,153-seat theater, you can be assured your event will be enjoyed and remembered.

Rental Fees

Space rental at the Weill Center is supported to whatever extent is required for your event, ranging from assistance from the ticket office staff to backstage sound and technical support. Our helpful, professional staff will work with you to create a successful small meeting or large-scale event. Many factors determine the cost for renting the Weill Center including:

- The space(s) you wish to rent
- Type of event
- Number of people who will attend
- Equipment needed
- Personnel required

If you are interested in renting the Stefanie H. Weill Center for the Performing Arts for your next event, or in scheduling a tour of the facility, contact Kim Meller, Events and Operations Manager at 920-208-0808, ext. 105, or kmeller@weillcenter.com.

She will meet with you to discuss your event and complete the estimate of charges for your event.

Experience

Theater Rental Programs

Stefanie H. Weill Center for the Performing Arts

826 N. 8th Street
Sheboygan, WI 53081

www.weillcenter.com

Imagine your event in this grand historic setting.
An inspirational environment for your great presentation!

Host an event in the intimate setting of our board room.
Be surrounded by the atmosphere of great performances.

Take center stage when you roll back the curtains to host an event with dramatic lighting and rich hardwood floors on two levels.

Additional Services

Theater rental includes any or all of the following, as needed:

- Supervisory services of the Weill Center Event and Operations Manager during licensed use of the facility
- Ticket office staff during the event and for two hours prior for a ticketed event
- Volunteer staffing and usher services
- Use of standard stage equipment
- Use of general lighting and standard sound equipment
- Access to all back stage areas (green room, dressing rooms, and bathrooms)
- Normal cleaning services before and after event

Design and installation of special lighting and sets are not included in rental fee but may be contracted for an additional charge.

Other Amenities

- Catering services for every size of group are readily available — the Weill Center Events and Operations Manager can provide contact information for these services
- Located in downtown Sheboygan
- Plenty of close-by parking: on-street metered parking and four city lots in close proximity (free parking after 5 PM). Handicapped parking is available.
- Wide variety of restaurants with a range of prices is within easy walking distance
- The GrandStay Residential Suites is located one block away

Tours

Schedule a tour of the Weill Center and see for yourself why it would make the perfect location for your next event.

Spaces for Various Size Groups

- Theater — 1,153 seats
- Board Room — 12 seated
- Onstage — 120 seated, or 150 standing
- Balcony — 30 seated, or 50 standing
- Lobby — 50 seated, or 75 standing
- Meeting and Training Facility — 50 seated

Treat your guests like royalty with an event on the balcony.
An exquisite setting with an incredible view.

The lobby can provide a distinctive reception area or be a majestic setting for your event.

The meeting or training facility can take your event to the next level.
It's an ideal space for your group.